

This is a travellers Will and does not replace the general Will and is meant to be used by any person travelling overseas eg. for umrah/hajj or even travelling in South Africa.

Travellers Will

I, the undersigned, _____ of South Africa, being in health of body & of a sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding and capable of doing any act or deed requiring thought and reflection, hereby declare to make and execute this my Last Will and Testament in regard to all moveable property found in my possession during the course of my travels.

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint _____ to be the Executor and Administrator of all the assets found in my possession or belonging to me, hereby giving and granting unto him/her all such powers and authority as are required or allowed in Law, especially the Powers of Assumption.

I direct that my Executor or Administrator shall not be required to furnish any security to any official or person for the due administration of all the assets found in my possession.

I hereby give, devise, bequeath and make over all the assets found in my possession, whether they be cash, moneys, drafts, bills, jewellery, goods and all my belongings to _____ direct that immediately on my death _____ shall take possession of all my property and shall distribute among my heirs in Accordance with Islamic Laws.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand at _____ on this date _____ day of _____ 201__ in the presence of the undersigned Witness:

Signed by the Testator as and for his/her Last Will and Testament in the presence of us both present together who at his/her request, in his/her presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names hereunto as Witness.

TESTATOR

As Witness:

- 1. _____
- 2. _____